September 16th, 2018 – 17th Sunday after Pentecost

You Are Welcome Here at Church of the Resurrection!

Thank you for joining us to worship today. You are joining with a community of people from all walks of life and at many places in their understanding of God and spirituality. We believe that we are all made in the image of God and that God's image becomes more clear as we grow in our diversity and love for one another.

We are not an institution, we are not a building, we are people who, with all our gifts and joys, our faults and failings, because of our common faith belong to one another. We hope you will find a spiritual home here, or a refreshing stop on your path through life.

If you would like to know more about our Church community, you can pick up a leaflet from our welcome table, speak to one of our welcomers or clergy or visit us online at:

After graduating, she travelled and performed in Broadway, opera and live concerts. She currently gives vocal instructions in her own music studio in Mississauga. She has passionately directed church choirs in the past 20 years. Fun Facts: Sometimes called Dimples, Rissa and "Diva". Loves going on cruises and loves dogs but allergic to them. ## TRUTH AND RECONCILIATION

By Terry Clause: "In the spirit of Truth and Reconciliation, I thought I would share a link to an upcoming docuseries that challenges people's views on Indigenous people in Canada:

"Most Canadians have never taken the time to get to know Indigenous People or visit their communities. First Contact takes six average Canadians, all with strong opinions about Indigenous People, on a unique 28-day journey into Indigenous Canada. Leaving their everyday lives behind the six will travel deep into Winnipeg, Nunavut, Alberta, Northern Ontario, and the coast of BC to visit Indigenous communities.

Narrated by host and social justice activist George Stroumboulopoulos, First Contact is a journey that will turn the six participants' lives upside down. Challenging their perceptions and confronting their opinions about a world they never imagined they would see. It is an experience that will change their lives, forever."
